The David Alexander Prize

The David Alexander Prize is awarded annually for the best essay on the history of Atlantic Canada written in course by a full-time undergraduate student at any university. Entries will be judged by a distinguished panel of scholars, and the Prize is administered by the Acadiensis Editorial Board.

The David Alexander Prize will be awarded for the first time in 1982. Entries must be received by 8 May 1982.

Further information is being circulated to university history departments and can also be obtained by writing to the Secretary-Treasurer, Acadiensis, Department of History, University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, N.B. E3B 5A3.

Friends of David Alexander may still contribute to the Prize fund. Send cheques to the Secretary-Treasurer of Acadiensis at the above address. Tax receipts will be issued.

FOUR YEARS WITH THE DEMON RUM

Acadiensis Press is pleased to announce the first in a new series of books on the history of the Atlantic region. The first volume in the series, Four Years with the Demon Rum 1925-1929: The autobiography and diary of temperance inspector Clifford Rose. This is the "inside" story of prohibition in Canada as revealed by a temperance inspector of the town of New Glasgow. It combines penetrating analysis with an entertaining yarn of detective work and political intrigue. The autobiography and diary of Clifford Rose have been edited by E.R. Forbes and A.A. MacKenzie who have also prepared an introduction to the volume.

The paperback version of the book may be purchased for $4.95 ($4.00 to Acadiensis subscribers) and the hardcover for $11.95 ($10.00 to Acadiensis subscribers) directly from Acadiensis Press, Campus House, Department of History, University of New Brunswick, Fredericton, N.B. E3B 5A3.

HISTORICAL BOOKLETS

CANADIAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

The Canadian Historical Association has planned a series of booklets to provide the general reader, the teacher and the historical specialist with concise accounts of specific historical problems. They are written by experts in their fields and include the results of the latest research. The series includes topics on which teachers and others have expressed a desire for more information than is now available in general works and texts.

Booklets are available in both English and French. Each member of the Canadian Historical Association receives one copy of each new booklet free at the time of publication. The price of booklets for general sale is $1.25 per copy, with a 25 cent discount to stores. Inquiries concerning booklets or CHA membership should be addressed to The Treasurer. Canadian Historical Association, c/o The Public Archives of Canada, 395 Wellington Street, Ottawa K1A 0N3.
