Honouring

We acknowledge the traditional Algonquin territory where this Special Edition was produced.

We acknowledge young people like Shannen Koostachin and Jordan River Anderson who have become role models for others.

Thank you to all of the young people who submitted poems, essays, letters and artwork to this Edition. For each and every submission, we recognize all of your hard work and effort. We had so many submissions that we sadly could not choose them all. For those that were not selected, we look forward to keep hearing more about your amazing, dedicated work for equity for First Nations and other young people across the country. We would also like to recognize and thank the following people and organizations for their contributions in making this edition possible:

- Dararasmey for providing the cover illustration
- Child & Youth Circle, First Nations Child and Family Caring Society of Canada
- Pierre Elliott Trudeau Elementary School, Room 114 (Jordan's Principle video)
- · Schools that attended the teddy bear tea party to launch Spirit Bear and Children Make History: Kitigan Zibi Kikinamadinan, Featherston Drive Public School, Lady Evelyn Alternative, Pierre Elliott Trudeau Elementary School
- · All of the teachers, parents, family members, and friends who supported the young people featured in this edition
- · Leah Gryfe and Janice Nelson for graphic design and layout
