(1987). Poetry Reparation by Bengt Adlers. Inter, (34), 38–39.

The old rainbow bound in the heart of the sky

So is I;
My father
was a man.
So Man
began each to each to be;

Now, when I am up
my days shall grow
and I could let
life die!

A natural wish
by the Rainbow
or me
when my piety
is so
when I behold;

So Man
began
each to each
to be;

My father
was a man.

So is I;

It leaps it
be Child
it:

Now, when I am
my days shall grow
and I could let
life die,
A natural wish
by the Rainbow
or me
when my piety
is so
when I behold;

Now, when I am
my days shall grow
and I could let
life die,
A natural wish
by the Rainbow
or me
when my piety
is so
when I behold;

The old rainbow
