TRAIR

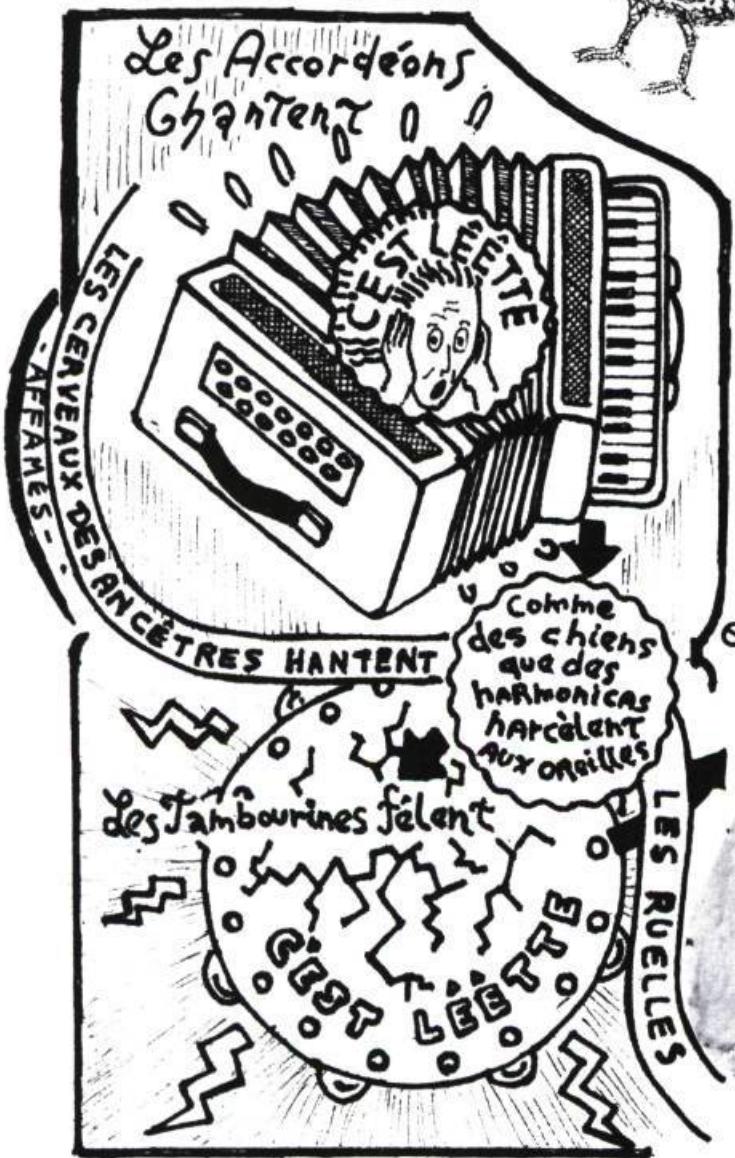

Ca veut Pas dire qu'y r'grette.

→ LES RÉGIONS AGRICOLES hurlent
