Moravian Beginnings in Labrador

Papers from a Symposium held in Makkovik and Hopedale

Edited by Hans Rollmann

An Occasional Publication of Newfoundland and Labrador Studies, No. 2

Newfoundland and Labrador Studies publishes an Occasional Publications Series devoted to conference proceedings, documents, and extended research notes. Regular subscriptions do not cover the cost of Occasional Publications, which must be purchased separately.

The second volume in the series is now available, entitled Moravian Beginnings in Labrador. It contains papers from a symposium held in Makkovik and Hopedale. The cost is $20.00 Canadian, plus postage. To order, contact Newfoundland and Labrador Studies at 709 864 2144, www.mun.ca/nls or email: nlstudies@mun.ca. The mailing address is Newfoundland and Labrador Studies, Faculty of Arts Publications, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NL, A1C 5S7.

Acadiensis is a journal of regional history devoted to the study of Atlantic Canada. The essential source for reading and research on the region, Acadiensis is one of Canada's leading scholarly journals. Original research articles present the most recent findings and interpretations by scholars in regional studies, including history, geography, political science, folklore, literature, sociology, economics and other areas. Acadiensis currently publishes twice a year, in the Autumn and in the Spring.
