

Contributors / Contributeurs

Volume 3, numéro 1, autumn 1973

URI : https://id.erudit.org/iderudit/acad3_1con01

Aller au sommaire du numéro

Éditeur(s)

The Department of History of the University of New Brunswick

ISSN

0044-5851 (imprimé)

1712-7432 (numérique)

Découvrir la revue

Citer ce document

(1973). Contributors / Contributeurs. Acadiensis, 3(1), 2–2.

Contributors/Contributeurs

Gisa I. Hynes has studied at Bochum University, West Germany, and at Memorial University of Newfoundland. She is currently a graduate student at Dalhousie University.

An Associate Professor at Michigan State University, Gordon Stewart is a graduate of the University of St. Andrews and Queen's University and co-author of A People Highly Favoured of God.

Patrick Keane is a member of the Education Department at Dalhousie University and has written a number of articles dealing with the history of education and with adult education.

Professor of Canadian Studies at Mount Allison University, George Stanley has published numerous books and articles dealing with Canadian history. His most recent work is Canada Invaded, 1775-1776.

John P. Greene is a graduate of Memorial University of Newfoundland and an archivist with the Provincial Archives of Newfoundland.

Jack Bumsted is a member of the History Department of Simon Fraser University and has published several books and articles on Canadian and American colonial history.

A member of the History Department of the University of Western Ontario, Yves F. Zoltvany has written extensively on the history of New France.

Professor of History at the University of Toronto, J. M. S. Careless has been twice winner of the Governor General's Award for Non-Fiction and has been awarded the University of British Columbia Medal for Popular Biography and the Tyrrell Medal of the Royal Society of Canada. Among his many published works are Brown of the Globe, The Union of the Canadas, 1841-1857 and Canada, A Story of Challenge.

A member of the History Department at the University of Toronto, Michael Bliss has written several articles on Canadian business and social history and is editor of "The Social History of Canada" series.

Ann Gorman Condon is a graduate student in History at Harvard University and has taught at the University of New Brunswick.