SAINT ANNES POINT PRESS

Announces a Series of Limited Edition Reprints of Rare Canadiana.

VOLUME I: Seventy Years of New Brunswick Life by Lt. Col. William T. Baird.

Published originally in 1890 Col. Baird's book is a particularly important historical commentary on the manners and customs of the people of New Brunswick during the years 1820 to 1890. Largely autobiographical, it is a scarce and entertaining work and contains many lively reminiscences of an interesting period in our history and in particular numerous colorful accounts of community life in 19th-Century Fredericton and Woodstock.

Available in a limited numbered edition of 500 hardbound copies at $14.95.

VOLUME II: Travels in North America: particularly in the provinces of Upper and Lower Canada and New Brunswick and in the states of Maine, Massachusetts and New York. by John Mann

This work was originally published in Glasgow in 1824. There will be 1000 copies paper bound which will sell at $10.00 each. Expected date of publication is 15 December 1978.
