REGIONAL HISTORY AWARDS
ATLANTIC PROVINCES

The Regional History Committee of the Canadian Historical Association is soliciting nominations for its Certificate of Merit Awards. These annual awards are given for meritorious publications in regional history, or for exceptional contributions by individuals, organizations or institutions.

In 1991 the awards were given to W. Gordon Handcock for his book, "So longe as there comes noe women": Origins of English Settlement in Newfoundland and to the Société historique Nicolas-Denys for their continuing contributions to the preservation and dissemination of local history in New Brunswick.

Nominations and supporting documents for the 1992 awards should be sent by 1 December 1991 to:

Don MacGillivray
Department of Humanities
University College of Cape Breton
Box 5300, Sydney, Cape Breton B1P 6L2

For the millions who can't read
Give the gift of literacy

More than four million adult Canadians can't read well enough to fill out a job application or understand the directions on a medicine bottle. You can help. Give money, volunteer with a literacy group, write to your MP, and read to your children.
