INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL of MARITIME HISTORY

The IJM is a fully-refereed journal for researchers interested in the economic and social history of the merchant marine, shipbuilding, fishing, ports, trade and maritime societies. The IJM is published semi-annually, in June and December.

Each issue contains feature articles, research notes, historiographical essays, and articles on sources useful to international scholars. As well, we run a series of forums on important issues in maritime history; along with "roundtables" which feature a number of reviews of an important new book with a response from the author. Our book reviews are truly international in scope.

Included as part of your subscription to the IJM you will receive Research in Maritime History. This series contains original monographs, reprints, translations, bibliographies, research guides, and collections of essays reflecting the diversity of maritime history.

This exceptional value is available for only US$45 per year, including surface postage (air mail is available at US$10 per year in North America, Europe and the Middle East; US$15 elsewhere). All subscriptions are filled by the calendar year only. Back issues for both publications are available at a cost of US$15 per edition.

For further information, please call (709) 737-2602, fax (709) 737-8427, E-Mail: Gulliver@morgan.ucs.mun.ca or simply write to International Journal of Maritime History, Maritime Studies Research Unit, Memorial University of Newfoundland, St. John's, NF A1C 5S7, CANADA. "It has been correctly said that: 'if you don't know where you have been, you don't know where you are going.'

Knowledge of our collective history is essential if we are to move forward; and Labour/Le Travail consistently provides the best research and analysis of labour and working-class history, drawing important links between work, family and community aspects of our lives.

Nancy Riche, Vice-President,
Canadian Labour Congress

JOURNAL OF CANADIAN LABOUR STUDIES

Labour/Le Travail is the official publication of the Canadian Committee on Labour History. Since it began publishing in 1976, it has carried many important articles in the field of working-class history, industrial sociology, labour economics, and labour relations. Although primarily interested in a historical perspective on Canadian workers, the journal is interdisciplinary in scope. In addition to articles, the journal features documents, conference reports, an annual bibliography of materials in Canadian labour studies, review essays, and reviews. While the main focus of the journal's articles is Canadian, the review essays and reviews consider international work of interest to Canadian labour studies. Many of Labour's articles are illustrated.

Recent issues have included: B.D. Palmer, "Homage to E.P. Thompson"; Charles Tilly, "Softcore Solipsism"; Nicholas Rogers, "Plebeians and Proletarians in 18th-Century Britain"; Melvyn Dubofsky, "Old Deal, New Deal: The Evolution of the Liberal State in the Modern United States."
