ARCHIVES

The historical records of the Trades Union Congress (TUC) have now been deposited in the Modern Records Centre in the University of Warwick Library. In addition to the TUC records, which amounts to 2,000 boxes, the collection includes the papers of the National Union of Domestic Workers, 1938-1953. This was the only union to be actually established by the TUC.

The Centre International de Recherches sur L'Anarchisme will move to new quarters at the end of 1989. The new address will be 24, avenue de Beaumont, CH-1012 Lausanne Switzerland. Contributions to help with the move and purchasing new equipment are welcome.

The International Instituut voor Sociale Geschiedenis has reopened at its new location. The new address is Cruquiusweg, NL-1019 AT, Amsterdam, Netherlands. At the same time, the collections of the Economisch-Historische Bibliotheek and the Nederlands Persmuseum were merged with those of the Institute.

SPECIAL NOTICE

A watch belonging to James Hammett, one of the Tolpuddle Martyrs deported to Australia in 1834 after forming an agricultural workers' union, has been stolen from the Museum in Tolpuddle, Dorset. If anyone should see the silver inscribed watch, please contact the police and the TUC.

BOYCOTTS

The United Farm Workers of America are calling for the boycott of California table grapes. They are also recruiting full-time boycott organizers, office administrators, and fundraisers to intensify the struggle. For more information, write United Farm Workers of America, c/o USWA District 6, 600 The East Mall, Suite 401, Toronto, Ontario, M9B 4B1.

MOVING ON

Elaine Bernard is leaving her position as the head of SFU's Labour Studies Program to head Harvard University's Trade Union Program. She may be contacted at Harvard University, Trade Union Program, 451 Brattle Street, Suite 25, Cambridge, MA, 02138. And to think we knew her when....
